

Job Vacancy

Job Title: Volunteer – Staff Development

Reporting to: Education and Programs Director

Based: Dharavi, Mumbai (India)

About Reality Gives

Reality Gives is a community-based education NGO founded in Mumbai's Dharavi (one of Asia's largest slums and home to over a million people) and Sanjay Colony (a slum community in New Delhi). We envision a world where underprivileged communities have equitable access to opportunities and resources, and believe education is the most powerful tool people can use to break the cycle of poverty.

Through our school, youth and sporting programmes, we have reached thousands of children and young adults since 2009. We are a young, dynamic and diverse team of 55 staff, coming from four different countries and a range of career backgrounds including the education, business and social sectors.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Conduct development sessions for staff, anchored in language growth, exposure to the world, and building values
- Schedule and work with staff individually based on a time that works for both
- The selected candidate will be trained in how to conduct sessions and supported by the Education and Programs Director

Key Skills

- Excellent English skills (oral and written), and comfort working with speakers of English as a secondary language

Experience Preferred

- Experience working as a teacher or educator would be desirable

Time Requirements

- Minimum 2 hours per week, for at least 6 months OR
- 4-6 hours per week, for at least 3 months
